*will be used to inform homeowners of upcoming events and important community information. (already collected emails will not be published unless written on this line).

Any additional information that you would like included in the directory: (e.g. pets, teenager services such as babysitting, pet sitting, grass cutting, etc.)

The Directory will also include a yellow pages section for homeowners who would like to market their business, so the neighbors in the community could contact you if in need of that service. If you would like to take advantage of these yellow pages please include a business card and/or brief description of your business. Your business card/ad will run for up to one year.

If you choose to market your business in the directory we are requesting a $10 donation to help with the cost of printing. Please make checks payable to: Magnolia Place Homeowners Association.
